Bicycling Acknowledgment of Risk

I and my party are aware that bicycling entails risk of injury or death to myself. We understand the description of these risks is not complete and that other unknown or unanticipated risks may result in injury or death. We agree to assume responsibility for the risks identified herein and those risks not specifically identified. Our participation in this activity is purely voluntary, no one is forcing us to participate, and we elect to participate in spite of the risks.

I certify that I and my party are fully capable of participating in this activity. I assume full responsibility for myself and party, including my minor children, for their bodily injury, death and loss of personal property and expenses thereof because of those inherent risks and dangers and of negligence in participating in this activity.

I and my party are proficient at the use of bicycles, and are aware there is training available on the use of provided bicycles.

Do you wish to receive training in the use of the available bicycles?
